

Statements about my children

Prayers and Statements of Faith about our Children.

1. I declare salvation in my children, that all of them are written in the book of life (Acts 16:31)
2. I declare that my sons and daughters have been set apart to advance the Kingdom of God, each one of them has their part in the battle, because they belong to the army of God (Joel 2:11)
3. I declare that my sons and daughters understand these times, that they were genetically conceived to be a generation of faith that takes away the impossible (Genesis 18:14)
4. I declare that my sons and daughters are covered with the blood of the Lamb and that no cord of destruction will come upon them (Isaiah 34:11)
5. I declare that my sons and daughters are invisible to all evil works (Psalm 91:10)
6. I declare that my sons and daughters will be freed from the bond of someone else's partner, that they will flee from it with courage (Genesis 39:12)
7. I declare that my sons and daughters long to do the Will of God, that they walk in obedience, against the currents of this world (Matthew 26:42)
8. I declare that my sons and daughters will be called illustrious, that their origin does not matter but their prophetic destiny does (1 Chronicles 9 and 10)
9. I declare that my sons and daughters will give their best offering to the Lord, the best of their lives will be for Him; their gifts will be offered with joy that they will be sowers of all that the Lord gives them and that therefore they will continually reap harvest (Genesis 4:11)
10. I declare that my sons and daughters are prosperous, that they live full and complete lives, that their needs are met, that it is the Lord who fills all their gaps (3 John 2)
11. I declare that my sons and daughters are filled with the Holy Spirit, that each day they live in victory, that they are convicted of sin and flee from temptation (Ephesians 5:18)
12. I declare that my sons and daughters, from the smallest to the greatest, will not stray from the way of the Lord, that they will love him with all their heart, with all their soul and with all their strength (Proverbs 22: 6)
13. I declare that my sons and daughters walk in integrity, that they discern by the Spirit what is true, honest, just, pure, of good name, the virtuous, that they do not accept bribes, that they do not get entangled in any situation of deception (Philippians 4: 8)
14. I declare that my sons and daughters will not know jail as a discipline for their lives, because the fear of God is in their hearts (Proverbs 1: 1)
15. I declare that the spirit of my children will be awakened to greater spiritual dimensions, that they will receive revelations from God, that they will be people of God's presence and that they will build the house of God (Ezra 1: 5)
16. I declare that my sons and daughters will not be unequally yoked with unbelievers, that they are covenant men and women and that they will live in holiness (2 Corinthians 6:14)
17. I declare that my sons and daughters are righteous, therefore, they will enter through the door of God (Psalm 118: 20)
18. I declare that my sons and daughters belong to the Lord, because He has bought them, that no culture of death will come to them (1 Corinthians 7: 22-23)
19. I declare that the hands of my sons and daughters are holy and that they are occupied with keys that will open all the doors that God has prepared for them (Matthew 16:19)
20. I declare that my children are witnesses of glorious manifestations of the Lord and that they will tell their generations about these wonderful works (Psalm 145: 4)
21. I declare that my children are diligent, that they make good use of their time, that they are hard-working, and that everything they do is successful (Ephesians 5: 15-16)
